ARCHBALD TO BE

Scranton Supporters Plan to Elect Him.

Washington, Jan. 15.-The future of Judge Robert W. Archbald, of the court of commerce, was much in dis cussion about the senate.

Judge Archbald, stripped of the er mine by the action of the senate and branded as forever disqualified to hold any office of honor, trust or profit under the United States, will at once re turn to Scranton, Pa. His many friends there, it was asserted in senate circles, would show their feeling in the matter of his impeachment and conviction by electing him to a state judgeship at the earliest opportunity.

Is impossible to know accurately the motives of the different senators who voted on the case. But it is much talked about the senate that the widespread sentiment the country oved for the recall of the judiciary was a large factor. Many conservative senators felt that to acquit Judge Archbald would mean the spread of the recall movement at a rapid rate.

It is said that when they first en tered on the trial of the case the respondent and his counsel did not be lieve he would be convicted. But as e end of the trial came near they realized the strength of the tide o feeling that was sweeping the senate Even at that, they were not prepared for the overwhelming vote, 68 to 5, by which Judge Archbald was adjudged guilty on the first count of the thirteen

Balkan States Decide to Break Up Confab When Powers' Note Is Presented

London, Jan. 15 .- The peace dele gates of all the Balkan states informed Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, that they were authorized to terminate the armistice with Turkey immediately unless the Turks agreed to the terms offered by the allies, in cluding the cession of Adrianople and the Aegean Islands.

It was said later that the delegates of the allies had decided definitely to break off the peace negotiations simultaneously with the presentation to the Turkish government of the note of the European powers. The resolution is to be communicated to the Porte in a formal note.

At the same time it was decided to instruct the commanders of the armed forces of the Balkan allies in the field to terminate the armistice which has been in operation since Dec. 3.

The threatening pote of the allies to the Turks is to be worded in such a way that it will become effective only in the event of the Ottoman gov. ernment refusing compliance with the advice given to it by the ambassadors of the European powers.

The members of the Balkan league are of the opinion that the note draft ed by the European diplomats is so lacking in force that it requires the emphasis which, they think, will be supplied by their threat to continue hostilities. Every state in the Balkan alliance is making active preparations to resume the war, according to M. Veni zelos, premier of Greece, and chie! plenipotentiary of that country in the peace conference.

"I have no hope that the Turkish grand council will declare for peace, M. Venizelos said, "and if the counci" decides on war, of course the peace negotiations will not be resumed.

"It is very apparent to us that Tur key, while procrastinating, is making preparations to renew the fighting, and we simply shall beat her to it.'

The Turkish envoys, Rechad Pasha Osman Nazami Pasha and Tewfik Pasha, were still in London awaiting advices from Constantinople, where the decision of the grand council still was unknown. The Ottoman delegates had nothing to say, but it was believed that they were confident that the war would be resumed, possibly within the

In diplomatic circles the outlook was admittedly dark. It was conceded as probable that the Turkish grand coun cil would declare for war, as the Young Turk and militarist factions weer in the ascendant, and the grand vizier, Kiamil Pasha, could not wel oppose them without sacrificing his ministry and perhaps himself.

With Turkey and the Balkan allie: openly preparing for further fighting and the great powers hesitating and differing among themselves, it was ad mitted that peace seemed a long way off at the preesnt time.

Annual Pre-Inventory Reduction and Rummage Sale

Instead of a three days sale as we have sometimes held at this season—we believe that it will be much more satisfactory to our customers in service, if we allow them to take more time to their purchases. We have, there fore, re-marked much of our Winter stock to quick closing prices. Cost not a consideration-Stock must be greatly reduced before inventory to make room as well as secure cash for our Spring stock soon to come in. This sale will continue while these bargain goods last-The early purchaser has best selection.

In addition to goods here advertised, there will be found Odds and Ends-that we have not space here to mention—of little lots at very low prices. Come and look the stock over.
